FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Convenience will always be a winning customer value proposition. Domino's Pizza has leveraged this insight for years and delivered more proof in its latest quarterly results. Domino's global retail sales grew 16.8% YoY in 1Q18, while its earnings per share jumped an impressive 58.7% YoY (assisted by US tax reform benefits). Domino's is taking convenience to another level with the launch of 150,000 Domino's Hotspots. The initiative will allow customers to receive deliveries at locations without addresses, including beaches, sports fields and local parks. Domino's willingness to embrace technology is another factor which has been critical to its success. Domino's is also currently testing a voice-based artificial intelligence assistant called DOM, which will take orders over the phone. This will free up franchisees' time to do what they do best: prepare and deliver pizza. We believe that Domino's is well placed to continue delivering outstanding value to both customers and shareholders.

MARKET COMMENTARY

Global equities delivered positive returns for the first time in three months. European stocks were up strongly during the month, with the euro weakness providing some relief for their export-heavy corporates. Emerging markets were also generally stronger (with the exception of sanction-affected Russian stocks) – India led the way with a recovery from its recent slump. Amongst the sectors, energy companies were the standout performers and the yield-sensitive consumer staples companies continued their slide (the S&P 500 Consumer Staples Index is now down 11% YTD).
