RISK PROFILE: HIGH

- This portfolio has a higher exposure to equity markets than any other risk-profiled portfolio and therefore tends to carry higher volatility.
- Expected potential long-term returns are high, but the risk of potential capital losses is high as well, especially over shorter periods.
- Where the asset allocation contained in this MDD reflects offshore exposure, the portfolio is exposed to currency risks.
- This is therefore suitable for long-term investment horizons.

FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY AT 28 FEB 2022

Global equity markets navigated the first half of February relatively well, remaining roughly flat as investors continued to balance anxieties about inflation and resultant interest rate expectations with quarterly earnings news, which was in aggregate reassuring (c. 6% ahead of consensus analyst expectation). Towards the end of the month, focus shifted to the escalating conflict in Ukraine, with Russian troops finally crossing into Ukraine territory towards month-end. This led investors to shun risk assets, with the MSCI World Index falling 2.5% by month-end. The South African equity market continued to defy its usual behaviour in such situations as a barometer for risk sentiment, with the FTSE/JSE Capped SWIX gaining 2.7% in February – one of very few markets to deliver a positive return for the month. This performance was heavily reliant on mining shares, beneficiaries of the likely commodity supply disruptions caused by the war and the world's response to it. A concentrated bull market in mining shares is a situation that is not well suited to the quality orientation of the Anchor BCI SA Equity Fund, which returned -0.95% for the month. As far as changes made in the portfolio, we continued to increase exposure to areas of the market where valuations remain attractive despite resilient earnings growth prospects over the next few years. We took profits on British American Tobacco and Richemont and we added to AECI, Impala, Absa, FirstRand, Standard Bank, MAS Real Estate and Redefine.

A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's. Transaction Costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and impacts Fund returns. The TIC should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over the investment period, the type of Fund, the investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER. The TER and Transaction cannot be determined accurately because of the short life span of the Fund. Calculations are based on actual data where possible and best estimates when actual data is not available.
